A new beauty complex is coming to the Promenade at Capital Mall this winter, providing a co-working space for independent salon professionals to rent stations and serve clients.

MY SALON Suite, a salon suite franchise, signed an agreement with multi-brand operators and business partners Adam Teske and Ryan Wildy to open the Olympia location.

Spanning approximately 5,243 square feet, the new complex will feature 28 individual salon suites for independent health and beauty professionals to rent. As franchise partners with MY SALON Suite, Teske and Wildy will recruit and lease suites to salon professionals, whom MY SALON Suite refers to as its members.

“The push toward co-working spaces has been on the rise for quite some time, and MY SALON Suite is on the forefront of alternative salon settings,” stated Teske, who also owns and operates five Jimmy Johns location with Wildy. “For us, we were drawn to concept because it allows us an opportunity to help talented health and beauty professionals thrive on their own. We know how hard it is to set up and grow a successful small business, but this business provides independent stylists with the resources they need to successfully operate.”
